Easy Voter Guides Offered in Five Languages for May 19, 2009 Statewide Special Election
Order free copies online today

Sacramento – The nonpartisan Easy Voter Guide provides clear descriptions of each state proposition in plain language and helpful information for new and busy voters. Place FREE online orders for the FREE Easy Voter Guide at www.easyvoter.org while supplies last. Place your order by March 27 for guaranteed delivery between April 10 and April 20.

Highlights of the Easy Voter Guide Project include;

- A Proposition section that helps voters understand the issues and what a yes or no vote means
- A companion Web site www.easyvoter.org which provides additional resources for voters along with a polling place look-up feature from www.smartvoter.org
- A printable PDF available in English, Spanish, Chinese, Vietnamese and Korean

The Easy Voter Guide Project is partnering with public libraries, newspapers, county elections offices, high schools, community colleges, adult schools and churches to distribute Easy Voter Guide booklets in five languages for the upcoming election. Easy Voter Guide distributors include the University of California Student Association, Univision/Telefutura of San Francisco and local Leagues of Women Voters throughout California.

The Easy Voter Guide Project is a service of the League of Women Voters of California Education Fund in partnership with the California State Library and the California Secretary of State's Office with generous support from The James Irvine Foundation.
